I'm an experienced web developer with a proven track record and have worked with Wordpress since 2005, when it was just a "cool" blogging system for simply faced geeks. I have a deep understanding of Wordpress and advanced knowledge of the following:

- + Woocommerce integration & development
- + Memberpress integration & development
- + Restrict Content Pro integration & development
- + Stripe, Paypal & Eway payment gateway integration
- + Generatepress, Divi & Genesis theme framework and child theme development
- + Wordpress custom plugin integration & development
- + Wordpress custom post type, taxonomy & query development
- + Site optimisation and speed improvements

When you work with me, you can expect high quality results, clear and ethical communication, attention to detail, an eye for aesthetics, and a personalised, professional and friendly service.

Wordpress member portal for online learning

★★★★★ 5.00 Jul 6, 2020 - Jul 16, 2020

Ivan was extremely patient to explain what he was doing and the project management was so professional. Most of all his experience meant he worked through the project quickly and productively.

Wordpress appointment scheduling

★★★★★ 5.00 Jul 1, 2020 - Jul 6, 2020

Ivan is highly experienced and that comes through as a huge benefit immediately. Ivan is in fact fixing a project that had been poorly managed to start with. His hourly rate is so worth it, saving me money by helping me make better decisions for my landing page / LMS project. I have one more project with Ivan which I'm looking forward to experiencing.

Need CSS Expert to Help Finalize Site Prior to Launch

★★★★★ 5.00 Aug 9, 2018 - Aug 25, 2018

Ivan's communication and attention to detail are what keep me coming back! In my opinion, he is the top 1% of the Upwork community. He helped me nail down last-minute programming errors and CSS issues prior to launch. His expertise with customizing WordPress for my client was impressive and would have been unsuccessful without someone of his caliber. 10 stars! It won't be long before I hire him again!

Wordpress Master + Divi Theme Customization

★★★★★ 5.00 Jul 30, 2018 - Aug 3, 2018

Ivan is a canary diamond on Upwork. His attention to detail, communication and incredible skills make him my first pick, always... always... always. He customized the entire backend of a Wordpress site, and although I insisted on using the Divi theme by Elegant Themes, it's all integrated and working brilliantly. From custom fields to unique page functionality, it's been months upon months of development work that is packed into one cleanly-coded website. I cannot speak higher of Ivan and I would not hesitate for one second to refer him to anyone!!
